CALL FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

Program Coordinator Project Survival

Expressions of interest are now being sought for the volunteer position of Program Coordinator – Project Survival.

Project Survival provides life saving skills to vulnerable members of the community which includes residents of various support centres, refuge shelters, drug and alcohol rehabilitation centres and youth centres.

This will be an exciting, challenging and rewarding role which would suit someone wanting to get involved in the South Australian community and make a difference.

As the Program Coordinator you will be responsible for the recruitment, orientation, training and rostering of volunteers. You will develop new and maintain current Project Survival clients and also provide basic First Aid training.
